TERMS AND CONDITIONS THERMALIES 2012 (extract)

1) GENERAL PROVISIONS

Application for admission implies total and unreserved acceptance of the present terms and conditions, together with those of the Exhibitor's Guide (for exhibitors), which prevail over any other document unless the Organizer decides otherwise, by formal written agreement. The exhibitor and/or sponsor also agree to comply with any new provisions arising from circumstances in the interests of the event and notified by the Organizer to the exhibitors and/or sponsors, even verbally.

2) ACCEPTED PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Only services, equipment and products relating to Thalassotherapy, Thermalism, Balneotherapy, Spa, Health and Well-Being and accepted under the classification drawn up by the Organizer for this event will be permitted.

All products, equipment and services displayed and designed for sale on French territory must comply with French and European regulations.

Second-hand equipment is expressly forbidden.

3) ADMISSION

Only applications addressed directly to the Organizer, duly completed and signed by a person with authority to commit the exhibitor and/or sponsor and accompanied with a payment corresponding to the amount of registration fees, which will remain acquired in any case to the organizer, will be examined by the organizer.

This deposit must be paid without fail, however, on receipt of the first invoice.

An application for admission does not constitute a request for participation. The Organizer receives the applications and rules on admissions without having to justify his decisions.

No compensation will be due if the Organizer refuses an application for admission. The fees already paid by the exhibitor will be reimbursed, excluding the registration fees, which remain the property of the Organizer.

Correspondence between the Organizer and exhibitor, the collection of part or all the cost or the publication of the exhibitor and/or sponsor's name in any list will not be considered as proof of the acceptance of the admission application by the Organizer.

The admission application form will be considered as accepted by the organizer after the exhibitor accepted (in the form of the apposition of a signature of a representative of the exhibitor being worth agreement) and returned to the organizer the plan of the exhibition with the space granted to the exhibitor.

For lack of express acceptance by the exhibitor of the making plan creating the place within 15 calendar days following the sending of the proposition of place by the exhibitor, the aforementioned proposition is invalid, and it by rights, without announcement, nor additional information, only remaining due to the organizer set-up fees.

Once the plan duly signed by the exhibitor and returned to the organizer, the admission application form, the surface and the spaces, and the reserved additional services, the amount estimated by the organizer corresponding to the surface and to the reserved additional services become for the applicant definitive and irrevocable. In the absence of the payment of the deposit such estimated by the organizer, and except opposite express agreement of the organizer, the admittance will be invalid, without announcement, nor additional information.

4) GROUPING

Unless the Organizer provides formal dispensation in writing, groupings will only be allowed to exhibit on condition that each company member of the grouping exhibiting its products and services has been accepted individually by the Organizer and has undertaken to pay all fees relating to its participation in this event.

5) SPACE ALLOCATION

The Organizer draws up the plan of the event and allocates the spaces. The Organizer reserves the right to modify the size and layout of the stands reserved by the exhibitor, before the exhibitor formally accepted the space.

Participation in previous events does not give the exhibitor a right to a specifically determined space.

The Organizer specifies the dimensions as accurately as possible on the plans sent out to the exhibitors, but cannot be held responsible for any slight differences which may be perceived between the dimensions indicated on the plan and the actual dimensions of the space allocated.

The Organizer cannot be held responsible by the exhibitor for any consequences resulting from the space allocated.

Once a space has been allocated, the exhibitor takes possession of it by signing the document "prise de possession", within the period and according to the terms set out by the Organizer and detailed in the Exhibitor's Guide. If he fails to do so, the space may be allocated to another exhibitor without any compensation or reimbursement being due to the defaulter. The exhibitor is forbidden to assign, lend or sub-let any or all of the space he has been allocated.

6) RATES

Stand rental rates and sponsorship fees are given on the Admission Application Form.

The list of additional facilities (water, electricity, telephone, fax, badges etc.) and their respective cost are outlined in the Exhibitor's Guide.

Rates may be modified at any time, on condition the exhibitors and/or sponsors are duly informed of such changes. The new rates do not apply to orders which have already been confirmed or are currently being processed.

7) V.A.T.

On condition the current legislation remains unchanged, foreign exhibitors and/or sponsors are eligible for the reimbursement of V.A.T. on the following conditions:

* European Union members: Please make the request via the electronic portal given by the Tax administration in the member states of establishment. Originals of the invoices received must be provided and applicants must certify on the forms that they have no activities in France incurring liability for French tax.

* Non European Union members: the formalities must be undertaken by a designated tax representative in France.

In order to obtain the reimbursement, the non European member company must either market its products and services to a French customer or intend to market them on French territory. The request for V.A.T. reimbursement must be in direct correlation with the marketing in France. Even if no delivery or service has actually been made to a French customer, the products or services promoted must be marketed to customers in France.

8) METHODS OF PAYMENT

The demand of admittance must be accompanied with a deposit containing registration fees. An invoice corresponding to this deposit will be sent to the exhibitor and/or sponsor on receipt.

In all cases, the registration fees remain the property of the Organizer, whatever the outcome of the admission application (refusal, cancellation, exclusion etc.).

Payment of the balance for the stand and/or sponsorship reservation and the cost of other facilities requested by the exhibitor and/or sponsor must be made on receipt of the appropriate invoices sent by the Organizer, with no discount available for payment before the due date or cash payments.

All payment must be made by check or bank transfer.

As from the acceptance by the Exhibitor of the plan creating the space, the surface and the reserved additional services, and the total price of the service, the exhibitor will have to send immediately 50 % of the amount of the booking and/or the sponsoring. An invoice corresponding to this deposit will be sent to the exhibitor and/or the sponsor at reception of the payment.

9) LATE OR NON-PAYMENT

Failure to fulfil the payments in accordance with the schedule set out in the present terms and conditions will lead to penalties amounting to one and a half times the legal interest rate, with two points added. These penalties will run once the injunction has been sent by the Organizer by registered post with signed receipt.

If on the eve of the event the sums have still not been paid in full, the Organizer may cancel the exhibitor's right to dispose of the allocated space and/or the sponsorship, and this without further notice. Without prejudicing what has gone before, the unpaid sums will be due by way of compensation, even if the space is rented to another exhibitor and/or the sponsor is replaced.

10) LOSS OR DAMAGE

The exhibitors and/or sponsors must leave the space, decoration and equipment made available to them as they found them. Any deterioration due to the exhibitor and/or sponsor, for whatever reason, will be billed to the exhibitor and/or sponsor.

11) CANCELLATION BY THE EXHIBITOR AND/OR SPONSOR

If the exhibitor cancels at least six months before the event opens, the Organizer will retain in compensation a sum equivalent to 50% of the value of the reservation estimated by the Organizer. If the cancellation occurs less than six months before the event opens, the Organizer will retain in compensation a sum equivalent to 100% of the value of the reservation, estimated by the Organizer, without prejudice in respect of any loss or damage.

In the case of partial cancellation, the percentage retained in compensation will be based on the part of the sum corresponding to the part cancelled.

12) AUTOMATIC INSURANCE

The Organizer takes out insurance on behalf of the exhibitor and/or sponsor, which automatically guarantees third-party civil liability and damage to property. The amount due by the exhibitor in respect of these compulsory insurance policies is included in the registration fees. The main clauses and terms of the insurance contracts are reproduced in the Exhibitor's Guide and the Congress Organization Guide.

13) SUPPLEMENTARY INSURANCE

The exhibitor is free to take out extra insurance cover through his own insurance company. He may also use the Organizer's insurance company if he so wishes:

- For damage to property: supplementary guarantees in return for a premium based on the value of the surplus capital.

- For risks accruing to transport: a guarantee adapted to the specific needs of the exhibitor.

The main clauses and terms of the supplementary insurance contracts are reproduced in the Exhibitor's Guide and/or the Congress Organization Guide.

14) CATALOGUE AND WEBSITE

The Exhibitor has the sole right to publish or have published the catalogue and website relating to this event and to distribute them.

The information published in the catalogue and on the website will be provided by the exhibitors and/or sponsors, who are responsible for such information. The Organizer will be held in no way responsible for omissions, errors in reproduction, layout or other which might occur. The exhibitor and/or sponsor expressly authorizes the Organizer to publish his data, brands and logo in the catalogue and on the website of the event.

The cost of the exhibitor and/or sponsor's inclusion in the catalogue and on the website of the event is included in the registration fees.

15) PUBLIC ACCESS AND INVITATIONS

There is an entrance fee for visitors.

A certain number of invitations will be distributed to the exhibitor and/or sponsor, under the terms and conditions outlined in the Admission Application Form. The cost is included in the registration fee. The exhibitor and/or sponsor may acquire other invitations under the terms and conditions outlined in the Exhibitor's Guide and/or the Congress Organization Guide. Invitations which have not been used cannot be returned, reimbursed or exchanged.

No one will be allowed within the precincts of the exhibition without a voucher either issued or recognized by the Organizer. The latter reserves the right to refuse entry to anyone, without providing a reason. He also reserves the right to eject any person whose behavior is deemed to justify such a measure.

Visitors are required to respect the security regulations imposed by the authorities, the Carrousel du Louvre and the Organizer.

16) INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The Organizer holds the intellectual property rights relating to the event (royalties, brands, logo etc.).

The exhibitor and/or sponsor is solely responsible for the industrial protection of his equipment and products, in accordance with current legal provisions.

The exhibitor and/or sponsor who uses music within the exhibition precinct, even for basic demonstrations of sound equipment, must deal directly with the SACEM. The Organizer cannot be held responsible in this respect.

Photographs will be taken on site during the event. These photographs may feature logos, brands, models or other elements liable to be covered by rights to possession, which are displayed by the exhibitor on his stand and/or published by the sponsor. These photographs may be used in a promotional context linked to the event, on paper or digitally. The exhibitor and/or sponsor who does not wish part or the whole of his stand or one of the elements represented on the stand (logo, brand, model etc.) to appear on the photographs used to promote the event must inform the Organizer in writing before the start of the event.

17) PERSONAL DATA

In accordance with the "Loi informatique et libertés du 6 janvier 1978" (Data Protection Act), person, whose data has been given to the Organizer by the exhibitor and/or sponsor, has a right of access and rectification regarding his personal data. This can be done simply by writing to the Organizer, giving his name, forename and address.

The personal data provided by the exhibitor and/or sponsor may be used by the Organizer in processing the participation of the exhibitor and/or sponsor and in personalizing communication relating to the Organizer's products. The data may also be passed on to the Organizer's other partners. If the exhibitor and/or sponsor do not wish the data to be used in this way, they should indicate it on the Admission Application Form or by writing to the Organizer.

18) CANCELLATION OR POSTPONEMENT OF THE EVENT

The Organizer may cancel or postpone the event if he considers the number of subscribers to be insufficient. The exhibitor and/or sponsor will be duly reimbursed for the amount already paid to the Organizer. Until the opening date of the event, however, the exhibitor and/or sponsor bears all the risks pertaining to its possible cancellation, notably as regards the fees he deemed fit to engage in view of the event.

Furthermore, if a case of force majeure, such as fire, war, public disaster, riots, strikes etc. causes a delay in opening, early closing or cancellation, or makes it impossible for some or all of the services offered by the Organizer to be carried out, the Organizer will be entitled to cancel the accepted admission requests or all or part of the event, at any stage, by informing by mail the exhibitors and/or sponsors that they are not owed any form of compensation, for whatever reason.

The sums remaining after all expenses have been settled will be divided between the exhibitors and/or sponsors on a pro rata basis, according to the fees incurred. It is expressly stipulated that the latter will have no recourse against the Organizer, whatever the reason or cause.

19) NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE RULES

The exhibitors and/or sponsors are expected to be aware of and comply with the security regulations and other obligations imposed by the public authorities, by current legislation and practice, the Organizer or the Carrousel du Louvre, such as those featured in the present terms and conditions, the Exhibitor's Guide, the safety regulations. All exhibitors must conform and respect to all the regulations (general exhibition regulation, the prevention plan, fire safety regulations and regulations of the Carrousel du Louvre). These documents will be on the exhibitor guide destined to all exhibitors.

Any breach of these rules may lead to the immediate expulsion of the exhibitor and/or sponsor, without the need for an injunction.

20) RESPONSIBILITY

The responsibility of the Organizer cannot be incurred if he applies the stipulations of the present terms and conditions, the complementary Exhibitor's Guide and/or Congress Organization Guide or the regulations of the Carrousel du Louvre and current legislation and practice.

The Organizer cannot be held responsible if the exhibitors and/or sponsors are indirectly wronged for whatever reason, such as shortfall in earnings, loss of expected profit, customers or income, disturbance of possession or any other harmful effects on business.

In any event, compensation of such a prejudice by the Organizer will not exceed the amount paid by the exhibitor and/or sponsor relating to the disputed reservation.

21) CLAIMS AND DISPUTES

Any claim must be made by registered letter with a signed receipt, within ten days of the event's closure.

In the event of a dispute, the French-language version of the Rules and Regulations will prevail and only the Paris Tribunals entertain jurisdiction.

THE FULL RULES AND REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO THIS EVENT CAN BE FOUND IN THE EXHIBITOR'S GUIDE. THEY WILL BE SENT TO ANY EXHIBITOR AND/OR SPONSOR ON REQUEST.
